

WHAT A BUSY START TO TERM 6!

We began the term with Road Safety lessons with Sam Smith, our new Road Safety Officer from the Lincolnshire Road Safety Partnership.

The children were captivated by the sessions and have been talking about how they want to make the roads in our villages safer - especially outside our schools.

Do you remember our sponsored read earlier this year? We have taken delivery of over £1,000 worth of Usborne Books (with the Usborne matched funds). What an amazing federation of readers!

Huge thanks to Chloe Bear Books for suggesting the event and sorting out the very big orders!

EXCITING LEARNING EVENTS AT GRAINTHORPE THIS TERM!

Our guitar lessons with Mr Sellars are proving to be very popular with half the school learning to play! I'm sure it won't be long before we can put on a concert to share the tunes.

The children participated in Djembe drum workshops and were inspired by Dave Mitchell's enthusiasm and knowledge. A little bit of West Africa came to Grainthorpe and filled the air with exuberance, colour and passion. Thank you to those parents and friends who made it to the finale and contributed to the whole school performance.
